Terms and Conditions of Sale, Delivery and Payment of Zweigart & Sawitzki GmbH & Co. KG, Sindelfingen for companies outside Germany

§ 1 General

The offers, agreements, goods and services by us or with us shall be based on the following terms and conditions. Terms and conditions of purchase of the Buyer which differ from our terms and conditions shall only apply in those cases in which we have agreed to them in writing.

Should it turn out that a provision in these terms and conditions is invalid, the remaining provisions shall nevertheless remain valid. The Buyer accepts these terms and conditions as being binding upon himself by placing an order with us or by taking receipt of a delivery from us.

The law of the Federal Republic of Germany shall be regarded as agreed for all legal transactions. The application of the standard laws on the international sale of movable objects is expressly ruled out.

The place of fulfilment for our deliveries and for the Buyer's payment obligation is Sindelfingen. The place of jurisdiction for all disputes arising from the business relationship is Stuttgart.

§ 2 Contents of contract

Orders shall be accepted by us once we have confirmed them or have delivered the goods.

Over- or short delivery of up to 10% of the goods ordered is customary in trade and are not subject to complaint. Only the amount delivered will be invoiced.

If block orders have been placed arrangements made for the order placed may only be amended with the consent of both parties.

§ 3 Delivery

Delivery shall be for the Buyer's account and risk. If there is a range of items within a single order we shall reserve the right to make a part delivery. Packaging shall only be invoiced if special packaging is requested by the Buyer.

§ 4 Complaints

Complaints must be lodged in writing within 2 weeks from the receipt of the goods at the latest stating the nature of the complaints as well as the item number and delivery note number.

If complaints of defects are justified we shall at our choice either supply a replacement or a credit.

Variations customary in trade or slight, technically inevitable discrepancies with regard to quality, colour, width, weight, finishing or patterns are excluded from objections.

The Buyer shall only be entitled to compensation claims for damages on account of consequential harm caused by a defect if, and provided that, we are to blame for intent or gross negligence.

No complaints may be made once the delivered goods have been cut or other processing work on them has begun.

In the event of concealed defects the statutory regulations shall apply. Compensation claims for damages as a result of EAN or other coding will not be admitted.

§ 5 Payment

The agreed terms and conditions of payment shall apply.

Payments shall always be received in settlement of the items owed for the longest period of time.

Checks will only be regarded as having been received once they have been finally credited to our account.

Payment by bill of exchange will not be accepted.

§ 6 Delay in payment

If payment is late, default interest will be invoiced at 3% above the bank rate charged by the European Central Bank.

We shall not be under any obligation under any current contract to continue to deliver unless all invoiced amounts have been paid in full and on time. This shall also apply if there is a significant deterioration in the Buyer's financial status, unless terms of payment are suspended and payment is made in advance prior to goods being delivered.

§ 7 Reservation of title

Delivered goods shall remain our property until all our claims from the business relationship have been satisfied. The Buyer may sell or refine the goods in the course of a proper business transaction (goods subject to the reservation of title). Pledging or transferring the ownership of goods by way of security in favour of third parties without our consent is ruled out. The Buyer hereby assigns to us his claim from selling on the goods subject to a reservation of title.

The Buyer must notify us straight away in the event that he stops making payments, or the goods are subjected to a levy of execution. He has to provide us with all the necessary documents and information to enable us to safeguard our rights. He shall allow us, or a party appointed by us, access to his premises.

The Buyer shall be entitled to collect assigned accounts even after they have been assigned. We shall undertake not to collect the accounts ourselves as long as the Buyer fulfils his payment obligations towards us properly. This means that we shall be entitled to the proceeds collected by the Buyer up to the amount of our claims on the Buyer.

§ 8 Protection of registered designs, Copyright protection and Trade mark protection

Fabric patterns, designs, embroidery patterns and embroidery ideas are protected by law; we reserve the right to have our design patents and utility patents protected; they may only be reproduced or copied with our consent.

„ZWEIGART“ is a protected trade mark both as a word trade mark and pictorial trade mark and as an emblem and may only be used in connection with goods supplied by us.

This shall also apply for individual article names created or used by us.
